CAR CRIME INCREASES

Altona police have expressed concern at the rising number of car thefts and larcenies in the Altona area over the past two weeks.

There have been eight thefts of and from cars.

Police estimate that over $6000 of goods and parts have been stolen from cars in Altona in the last three months.

There have also been an increasing number of daylight thefts.

Added to this there have been several cars recovered in Altona, which have been stolen from other areas as far away as Geelong, East Melbourne, Williamstown and Footscray.

Police at Altona believe that a number of thieves are basing their operations here.

Police say that a number of cars are stolen for joyrides too.

A radio and battery worth $98 was stolen from a car parked in a yard at Kororoit Creek Road, the property of F. C. Keer Ltd.

There was no sign of forced entry.

A West Footscray man, Brian J. Gill, of Geelong Road, has his late model car stolen from outside Altona Hospital in Queen Street, Altona.

He said that the car had been left unlocked.

Police have repeatedly asked that cars be left locked when unattended.

TWO CARS

Two cars were stolen from the Wiltona Migrant Hostel, in Kororoit Creek Road.

The first, a Morris 1100, worth $1500 was stolen from Mr. Jose Clua, a resident.

It was parked in the driveway.

The second was stolen from Mr. John Griffith, who had parked his car in the grounds.

It has since been recovered.

A touch of irony was added to the theft of Mr. Tom Saros' car.

Mr. Saros, who lives in Charles Street, Altona had his car stolen while he was on patrol as a night watchman.

The thief parked the car outside Mr. Saros' house and removed the two front wheels.

Mrs. Nellie Heath of Ilkura Court was another victim of the wave of car thefts.

The bonnet of her late model car was forced and a 12 volt battery, worth $20 was stolen.

A late model Holden was stolen from Mr. James Kent, of Sargood Street, Altona.

The car and contents are worth $3000.

A 1962 Holden valued at $450 was stolen from Mr. Napoleon Gotsis, who has a milk bar at High Street, Seaholme.

VANDALS

Before this Mr. Gotsis reported to police that vandals had torn the handset from a public telephone box outside his shop and thrown it through his illuminated sign.

Police asked the citizens to report anyone lurking around cars, and urged owners to keep their cars locked.

Looking absolutely thrilled with her two first born children, Mrs Maria Calleja was pictured by our photographer this week, shortly before going home. The twins Pauline and Maria are both fit and healthy although Maria a little unhappy. Pauline weighed 5lb 8 oz and Maria 4lb 15½ ozs.

Mayoral Ball a success

A big crowd attended the Altona Mayoral and Citizens Ball at Shirley Park Reception, Altona North, last Friday night.

Invited guests included the Mr. J. J. Giniffer M.L.A. and Mrs. Giniffer, the Mayor of Williamstown, Cr. J. Byron and Mrs. Byron, the Mayor of Footscray, Cr. T. Greer and Mrs. Greer and the Werribee Shire President Cr. K. McNaughton and Mrs. McNaughton.

Guests from local service organisations were Mr. Reg Higgins, president of Altona Hospital's joint fund-raising organisation, Mr. H. C. Beecham Rotary President and Mrs. Beecham, Mr. George Kinningback, Apex President and Mr. N. Woods and Mrs. Woods of Lions.

Profits from the evening was donated to the Altona Spastic Aid committee. No figure as to the amount raised is available yet.

The president of Spastic Aid Mrs. M. Thompson and the secretary, Mrs. Linda Oakes were present to receive donations.

The guests left at 1.30 after an extremely enjoyable evening.

Traders say 'no' to night shops

Pier Street Traders have decided not to extend trading hours.

Altona Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Frank Smith, said he had canvassed the traders after receiving a letter from the Victorian Chamber of Commerce. The letter said that 80 per cent. of shopkeepers opposed the extensions.

Mr. Smith said that extensions would mean higher prices and staff losses.

He was unable to say how the other Altona traders would react to extended hours.

District boys look at army

Two pupils from Altona High School will visit the Royal Military College in Canberra for three days next month.

They will fly to Dunrobin on July 1 and return to Melbourne on July 4.

The visit is designed to give H. Westhorpe and I. J. Colling an insight into life at the college and military life in general.

These boys and 78 others from Victorian high schools will be accommodated with officer cadets at the college and will be lectured by senior administrative staff as well as being shown around various training areas.

An afternoon spent on a guided tour of Canberra, including a visit to the Australian war memorial, is one of the highlights of the trip.

Four senior NCO's will accompany the boys, who have been nominated by the headmasters of their schools.

The students are all in the leaving or higher school certificate year at their respective Victorian high schools.

Trip for citizens

A busload of senior citizens from the Altona Club visited the Ringwood Elderly Citizens Club this week.

It has been a bad week for illness at the club this week.

Census information for non settlers

The Good Neighbor Council leader for Altona, Kas Jurga, wishes to tell all new settlers about the census of population and housing, which will be on June 30, 1971, and to help them to understand and complete the Householders' Schedule form.

The Census will be taken in Australia in June to obtain statistics about the population and housing of this country. The last census of this kind was taken in 1966.

It is very important that every person should be counted — babies, old-age pensioners, visitors, migrants or native-born Australians — everyone must be counted.

The Census collectors who will call at each dwelling are employees of the Bureau of Census and Statistics.

It is their job to deliver census forms to all households in Australia in the few days before June 30, census day, and to return as soon as possible after June 30, to collect the completed forms.

The main form is called a householder's schedule and the head of each household must complete this form for all persons who spent census night in the dwelling.

Anyone who does not want his personal information to be seen by the householder may use a separate form called a personal slip.

The census collector and all other officers of the Bureau of Census and Statistics are sworn to secrecy under the Census Act, 1955-1966 and your householder's schedule cannot be seen by anyone who is not an employee of the Bureau.

The information contained in these forms will be used only for obtaining totals for statistical purposes.

These statistical totals are essential to people working on such national problems as housing needs, better living standards, educational welfare and so on.

If you and the members of your family cannot understand English, you should seek help from a friend who does, from any branch of the Good Neighbour Council or from Migrant services provided by various banks throughout Australia. If this is not possible, the collector will try to obtain the services of an interpreter.

Every census collector will help you with written information on your mother language if you tell him which language you speak and ask for census form P.1.

You will obtain information written in either German, Greek, Italian, Russian, Spanish, Turkish and Yugoslav.

If you should still have problems and difficulties which you are unable to solve in the householders' schedule, will you please see your Good Neighbour Council leader or contact worker.

The address for Altona is 2 Cleghorn Avenue, Altona North, telephone 391 1637.

A group of seven helpers in different languages have pledged their willing assistance.

One very important point to make clear is that the services of the Good Neighbour Council is for every new settler or native Australian.

A doctor and a priest are conducting the lecture.

ALTONA NORTH

Altona North Principal Mr. P. Maddern appealed this week to any teachers living in the area and not currently employed by the department to contact him.

He said the situation was such at the school that should a teacher be away ill or on leave it made difficulties for the school.

Mr. Maddern said the position for part time work would be ideal for married women who have been trained as teachers.

If they haven't got transport we will pick them up, he said.

Mr. Maddern can be contacted at 391 4572.

ST. MARY'S

The school will be visited for three weeks by two trainee teachers, Miss L. Charles and Miss M. Buckley.

ber, Wendy Lockwood went on a State pack leaders train trip recently.

CRIMINALS KEEP POLICE BUSY

Police in Altona have been busy with criminals this week.

Several office and house breakings have been reported, and two youths will appear in Footscray children's court on larceny charges.

They were detained in connection with bicycle thefts around Altona.

The manager of the Altona Working Men's Club, Mr. Gerald Keep's house was broken into and ransacked. Mr. Keep reported that thieves had forced a partly opened window.

Nothing was stolen.

Two batteries were stolen, two destroyed and four gallons of petrol are missing after a breaking at the Altona Council's depot.

Thieves pried two batteries loose from trucks and tractors parked in the yard.

A hole had been cut in the wire fence.

A caravan used to house men working for the Mines Department was broken into and money and goods valued at over $160 were stolen.

The caravan is used to house men during the week and are left unattended at weekends.

One of the occupants, Raymond Williams, lost a transistor radio valued at $40.

Another occupant, David

Grimstead, lost a wallet containing $120 and personal papers.

An office in Garton Street, Altona, owned by Mr. Herbert McHie, of Bayview Street, Williams-town, was broken into and $24 in notes and silver was stolen.

Altona police and Williamstown CIB are investigating.

BOOKSHELF

Two new invaluable books have gone on the market this week could be invaluable to the parent and the small businessman.

The first, called Two Worlds, deals with the problems that migrant children and parents have in English-speaking schools.

Written for the Brotherhood of St. Laurence, the book has a number of in-depth interviews with migrant parents, the problems they face and some answers.

It reveals also that migrant children do not "pick up" English easily, that many new settlers do not understand what their children do at school and that schools usually have no idea what the migrant parents think.

The second book, Starting and Operating a Small Business, covers the subject from one who knows — Melbourne commerce graduate, Mr. M. C. Woods, himself a manager of a small business.

The book contains no magic formulas for success, but rather deals with problems of financing, operating and procedure information. It is probably the only one of its kind ever written. Both books are available from book sellers.

Apex Appeal To Start

Altona Apex have been asked by Apex International to provide funds for the emergency relief of East Pakistani refugees.

The president, Mr. Brian Horgan, of Melbourne, returned to Australia after personally studying the refugee problem.

During a four weeks' tour of South-East Asian Apex clubs, Mr. Horgan travelled to the Indian-Pakistan border to visit the refugee camps.

Immediately he left the area, Mr. Horgan contacted the Apex secretariat in Sydney to set an association-wide appeal in motion.

He said the scenes at the refugee camps were incredible.

The money raised in the appeal will be administered through a joint committee of Indian Apexians and Round Tablers, members of a similar young men's community service organisation. Last year, Apex and Round Table of Britain and Ireland provided about $60,000 for flood relief in West Bengal following the tragic tidal wave.

Apex has made $5000 from its emergency relief fund available immediately to Apex clubs in Calcutta for relief work.

Altona basketballers for Munich games?

Four Altona basketballers may be in Australia's basketball team for the 1972 Olympic Games in Munich.

All four have been selected for the Australian squad and may be competing in New Zealand from August 6 to 15.

They are Brian Kerle, 25, of Sixth Avenue, North Altona, Robbie Johnstone, 24, Queen Street, Altona, Toli Koltuniewicz, 22, Yarraville, Peter Pethe- rick, 21, Blackshaw Road, Spotswood.

They were selected for the 16-man team when they competed in Adelaide last week.

Selection was based on overall performance during the year and last week's heats between Australia's top 18 teams.

Of the 16 in the Australian team, 13 are Victorians, one comes from Newcastle, and another from Sydney, in New South Wales, and the remaining member from Adelaide.

The squad will be taking 12 members to New Zealand in August, these have still to be selected.

Games will be played in Auckland, Christchurch and Rotorua.

Early in December the team will compete in the United States of America as part of the build-up for the Olympics in August and September.

A fifth member of the squad is former Yarraville resident, Ray Tomlinson, now residing in St. Kilda.

Interested in others?

Sitting there quietly reading the paper and possibly eating an apple, or chewing a sweet, can you imagine the plight of more than three million people who have no home, food, or warmth?

For those of you who still practice Christian concepts, and are aware of the desperate situation in India as a result of the influx of East Pakistani refugees, donations, no matter how small, can be sent to Austcare, 37 Swanston Street, Melbourne, 3000.

It's unlikely that your donations will be acknowledged on TV, radio or the press, but you will have the satisfaction of knowing that at least one Australian cares.

The mayor of Williamstown, Cr.
Jack Byron, would rather see rifle club houses at Caulfield Racecourse and Pentridge prison than on the Williamstown Rifle Range.

He told councillors this last week.

He said two of the best club houses on the range belonged to clubs from Caulfield and Coburg.

Cr. Byron said the people of Williamstown had more right to the land than people from Caulfield or Coburg.

Council has received a letter from the Minister for the Army, Mr. Peacock, saying that his department is waiting for a report from the Victorian Rifle Association about the affect on rifle clubs if the range was relocated.

Mr. Peacock said investigations were continuing for a suitable alternative site for the range.

Football and cars won't mix

Mention football to Bob Smith and his brown eyes light up.

Although business commitments forced Bob to retire from the Williamstown Football Club earlier this year, he still plays every game with the Firsts — even if only from the grandstand.

Bob and his wife Margaret are proprietors of the Shell West Mason Auto Port at the corner of Mason and Hansen streets, West Newport.

Bob took over the lease of the service station about 18 months ago and since then business has increased steadily.

He now can't find the time to train or take time off on Sundays to play.

Bob is probably one of Williamstown's best known footballers.

He was with the club for seven years, but it was three years before he began to play regularly with the Firsts.

He retired after four games this season — although at 26 he still should have several years of football left.

He tries not to miss watching a match and is philosophical about the Gulls' shocking form this year. "Well, I guess it's much the same as with Barassi's Carlton," Bob said.

"After you have been winning for a long time, the keenness wears off and the edge goes off your game."

"We've been in the past three Grand Finals, and you can't be successful all the time."

Come-back

He jokes about making a come-back, though he says on his present form he wouldn't be much good to them anyway.

Bob can't speak too highly of the club and the friends he has made there over the years.

And he considers Max Papley is the best coach he has ever met.

Max gave him his first real chance in the Firsts in the 1968 season, and he never looked back.

He reckons he's played in every position except ruck and full-forward, and those only because he is a bit short.

He got his start in football with F & Y Socials in Yarraville.

Bob lives in McIntosh Road, North Altona.

He has always lived in the area and went to school at Footscray High School.

He is a fully qualified mechanic and worked at the Auto Port before taking over the lease.

He's selling cut-price petrol like other service stations in the area, but he considers the whole petrol war a farce.

The garage is a 12-hour, six-day-a-week job, so it does not leave Bob much time for relaxing.

The Curtain Rises

By Thisbe

Wednesday, July 7 to Saturday, July 17, will see the cast of The Knack showing their talents to the audiences at the Williamstown Little Theatre, 2-4 Albert Street.

The theatre will be comfortably heated so that the audience will be able to forget the wintry weather outside. At interval there will be hot coffee and biscuits to help the conversation and add to the general feeling of well-being which comes from good entertainment in a friendly atmosphere.

Make sure that you book early for this very interesting play. On Monday, June 28, the booking plan will be available at E. S. Marks Music Shop, 49 Ferguson Street.

After the first few nights early in the season, it will be difficult to guarantee good seats for The Knack.

One of the great names of Victorian "live" theatre died last week. Mr. Peter Randall, who honored the Williamstown Little Theatre, by cutting the satin ribbon and declaring it open, has gone from us.

His work at St. Martin's Theatre, and his help and advice given to actors, writers and theatre groups ensure that his name will be remembered with respect and affection whenever "theatre types" meet.

The Randall name has always meant a great deal to the WLT as Mr. Brett Randall, Peter's father, helped with advice and assistance with the choice of plays 25 years ago when the theatre was just beginning.

Five per cent. interest

The interest rate on State Savings Bank Deposit Stock has been raised to five per cent. yearly from Monday, June 21.

The new rate will be payable on both existing investments and new lodgements in this stock.

They require one month's notice of withdrawal and are accepted from a minimum of $20, in multiples of $2.0

Interest is paid half-yearly.

CAMERA CORNER

The first of next month is "pay-up" night for the Williamstown Camera Club.

Fees for members joining in July is $3 and decreases by 75 cents each quarter. Students can join at half rates.

Competition themes for July and August are "Abstract" and "Open". A maximum of three slides per member may be submitted.

It is not essential to enter competitions. The club has members who prefer to listen to comments on the work of others and exhibit and discuss their own work at mid-monthly meetings.

TREES CUT?

Trees near the Williamstown Bowling Club are annoying bowlers.

Leaves from the elm trees block the club house spoutings and fall on the green.

The club has written to Williamstown council asking if the trees could be lopped, as it takes the greenkeeper hours cleaning up and disposing of the leaves.

Council has asked the Superintendent of Parks and Gardens to report to the Reserves Committee.

Missed again

The Williamstown squash girls lost a very exciting grand final last Saturday night to Sunshine.

Kitty Gabriel won her B Reserves match three games to two, giving Williamstown the first rubber.

Cherie De Rose lost one game to three, giving Sunshine the equalising rubber but one game in front.

Margaret Russell put the team in a winning position by taking her match three games to love.

The match scores were two rubbers to one; this meant that Jan Smith had to win one game to give Williamstown victory.

A very nervous Jan Smith went on to the courts with great determination, but Sunshine won the premiership flag.

This is the second time in succession that Williamstown have been "runner-up".

The club wishes to thank all the supporters who braved the cold night and gave the girls so much support.

DEALER'S LICENCE

A second-hand dealer's licence has been applied for by C. A. DeBonnaire for premises at 111-113 Douglas Parade, Williamstown.

Council's Chief Health Inspector, Mr. Hawthorn, will report on the application.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Charles Collinder make an attractive picture as they pose in the sunset after their wedding at St. Christopher's Roman Catholic Church. The bride, formerly Yvonne Lynette Kean is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kean of Niddrie. Rodney is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Collinder of Newport. The bride was attended by Miss Marie Gray and her younger sister, Miss Dianne Kean. Best man was the groom's brother, Mr. Warren Collinder and groomsman was Mr. Ray Titter.

They'll cycle 60 miles

A 60 mile open professional cycling race promoted by the Williamstown and Newport district cycling club will start at 12.45 p.m. on the Altona esplanade this coming Saturday.

The event, which has been staged eight times previously will be starting and finishing from Altona for the third time.

The other six stagings were all from Werribee.

From the starting point near Pier Street, cyclists will go along The Esplanade to Maidenstone Street, left into Queen Street, then Central Avenue, Aviation Road, over four laps of a circuit bounded by Sneydes, Geelong, Duncan's and Aviation Roads and will return to Altona over the same route.

Riders to arouse most interest will be Trevor Williamson, Hilton Clarke, Frank McCaig, Ian Stringer, Kerry Gawley, Bill Brookes and Mike Hollingsworth.

Williamson hit the headlines last October when he won the nine-day 1100 miles Sun Tour of Victoria.

Former Olympian Hilton Clarke is the current Australian one-mile champion and has been a prolific winner of open track events.

Frank McCaig has won the rich Bendigo Golden Mile on three occasions and last road season he dominated the scene by winning the "Hamilton 75", the "Wangaratta 90", the "Wendouree 110", the "Midlands Tour", the Victorian 125-mile road championship and two criterion events.

Ian Stringer is the youngest rider in the world to have won a major six day race and at the moment is in devastating form.

Kerry Gawley from Western Australia gained fastest time in last year's race, while Bill Brookes finished first with fastest time in the opening race of the season, the Chalmers Watt Memorial.

Hollingsworth is another former Olympian and is the current Victorian 5000 metres pursuit champion.

Williamstown's winner, Wal O'Brien, who went close to making it three when he finished a close second last year.

Tony Robson, who won the Warrnambool in 1961, is another entry, while Geoff Salter looks a real chance of giving Williamstown their first win in their own open.

Programmes available at the start, will enable spectators to identify the riders.
